4. Curriculum Consulting

R1 offers the capability to help you design and develop the best curriculum for your programs. Our team of experienced learning consultants will help you assess what you are currently doing today and build a set of recommendations to take your program to the next level. We'll assess the quality and consistency of your curriculum, assess how your learning objectives are linked to your treatment plans and patient outcomes, and how to structure and evaluate your curriculum so that you can increase engagement, participation, learning, action, and results. You will receive an Executive Report that will include our findings and a set of recommendations that will enable you to prioritize and plan for any changes you want to implement to improve your program overtime.

5. Discovery Cards Branding Options – Build Your Brand

Use the Discovery Cards as a communication tool to build your organization's brand. Workbooks and worksheets typically get thrown away after a treatment or recovery program. The Discovery Cards are rarely thrown away. They are kept on desks or in prominent places at home and often reused with others. Add your logo and contact information to Discovery Card boxes to promote and extend your brand.
